Objectives for Today's Presentation

- Understanding the purpose of the FYSPRT
- Understanding the benefits to Peer Partners becoming members of their regional or local FYSPRT
- Understanding the role you have in the work of the FYSPRT
- Ensuring you know what region you are in and who your contact person is

What is a FYSPRT?

- Washington State Family, Youth, System Partner Round Tables (FYSPRTs) provide a forum for families, youth, systems, and communities to strengthen sustainable resources by providing community-based approaches to address the individual behavioral health needs of children, youth, and families.

What do FYSPRTs do?

- FYSPRTs serve as an integral part of the Children's Behavioral Health Governance Structure that was adopted within the T.R. et al. v. Strange and Birch (originally Dreyfus and Porter) Settlement Agreement and informs and provides oversight for high-level policy-making, program planning, decision-making, and for the implementation of this agreement, including the implementation of Wraparound with Intensive Services \(WISe\).

What does the FYSPRT offer me?

- A place to be heard
- A place to learn
- A place to find common ground
- A place to help facilitate change within our community
- A place to remember I am not alone in this journey

Building Bridges

- Tri Lead Model
- Equal Voice
- Authority to Initiate Change

What do I offer the FYSPRT?

- Someone to give other perspectives
- The benefit of my gifts and talents
- The benefit of my knowledge
- Someone to help in the work-load

We need YOU!

- Building Bridges
- Tri Lead Model
- Equal Voice
- Authority to Initiate Change
